SAN JOSE DIVISION

THE CENTRAL INSTITUTE FOR EXPERIMENTAL ANIMALS,

Plaintiff,

v.

JACKSON LABORATORY,

Defendant.

Case No.: C 08-5568 PVT

ORDER RE PARTIES PROPOSED FORM OF PROTECTIVE ORDER

On May 8, 2009, the parties filed a [Proposed] Stipulated Protective Order. Based on the form of order submitted,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that no later than May 22, 2009, the parties shall submit a revised form of order that rewords Paragraph 13 to read as follows:

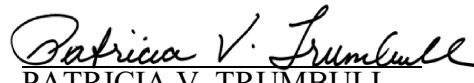

“Each party shall make efforts that are ‘reasonably designed’ to protect its privileged materials. See Gomez v. Vernon, 255 F.3d 1118, 1131-32 (9th Cir. 2001). What constitutes efforts that are reasonably designed to protect privileged materials depends on the circumstances; the law does not require ‘strenuous or Herculean efforts,’ just ‘reasonable efforts.’ See, e.g., Hynix Semiconductor, Inc. v. Rambus, Inc. 2008 WL 350641, *1–*2 (ND Cal., Feb. 2, 2008); see also, FED.R.CIV.PRO. 26(f)(3) advisory committee’s notes to 2006 amendments (discussing the substantial costs and delays that can result from attempts to avoid waiving privilege, particularly when discovery of electronic information is involved). When a particular Rule 34 request requires a production or inspection that is too voluminous, expedited or complex (such as certain electronic productions) to allow for an adequate pre-production review, the parties may enter into non-waiver agreements for that particular production. If the requesting party is unwilling to enter into such an agreement, the Producing Party may move the court for a non-waiver order.

1 “In the event that, despite reasonable efforts, a Producing Party discovers it
2 has inadvertently produced privileged materials, then within 30 calendar days the 3 Producing party shall notify the Receiving Party that the document(s) or materials
4 should have been withheld on grounds of privilege. After the Receiving Party
5 receives this notice from the Producing Party under this paragraph, the Receiving 6 Party shall not disclose or release the inadvertently produced material to any person or 7 entity pending resolution of the Producing Party’s claim of privilege. The parties
8 shall hold a meet and confer, as defined in Civil Local Rule 1-5(n), as soon as 9 reasonably possible after a notice of inadvertent production. If the Producing Party
10 and Receiving Party agree that the inadvertently produced material is privileged, and 11 was disclosed despite efforts by the Producing Party that were ‘reasonably designed’
12 to protect the materials, then the Receiving Party shall return or certify the destruction
13 of all copies (including summaries) of such material. If no agreement is reached, then
14 within 10 court days after the meet and confer, the Producing Party must seek a ruling
15 from this court to establish that the material is privileged and that the Producing Party
16 did not waive the privilege by inadvertently producing the material. If the Producing 17 Party seeks such a ruling, the Receiving Party shall not disclose or release the 18 inadvertently produced material to any person or entity pending the court’s ruling on 19 the Producing Party’s motion.”

20 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the revised form of order shall be on pleading paper, and 21 otherwise comply with the formatting requirements of this court’s Civil Local Rule 3.

22 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pending entry of the final form of protective order, the 23 provisions of the parties’ proposed form of protective order, as modified herein, shall govern the 24 handling of confidential information exchanged or disclosed during discovery in this case.
